Get Dad the Good Stuff for Father's Day

Duracell Daylite LED Flashlight

Battery maker Duracell has come out with a new line of durable, compact LED flashlights, good for shop, home or car. $25; www.duracell.com

Porsche Grill

Porsche Design has created the 911 of barbecue grills. The X Series, with 1,120 square inches of cooking area, is made of powder-coated steel with stainless-steel control knobs and cooking shelves. With 52,000 BTU and Crossray lateral-mount infrared burners, this grill can cook up a storm, on either LP or propane fuel. $6,000; www.bbqgalore.com

Air Alert Valve Caps

Air Alert valve caps flash an LED warning light if the tire pressure drops by 4 psi. The caps fit any standard valve stem, and battery life is about two years of stand-by time or three weeks of flashing.

$40 (set of four); www.automotiveupgrade.com

Contigo Travel Mug

Dad might enjoy drinking his Red Line coffee (see next page) from a spill-proof Contigo travel mug. The 16-ounce brushed-stainless-steel mug features Autoseal, a lid that is 100 percent spill-proof. Plus, it keeps hot liquids hot for up to four hours and cold things cold for 12 hours. $20; www.gocontigo.com
